THE SHOWS ARE UNDERWAY

The first show of the season was presented by the Sunrise Chapter. There were 11 amateurs to enter bloom and there was a total of 72 Gold Seal bloom in competition for the trophy and tri-color ribbons.

The sweepstakes were won by Charles Harlen of Miami in the Amateur section; Mr. & Mrs. Gordon Fore in the Collector section: and by Homestead Nurseries in the Commercial section.

Other winners were:

Amateur Single - "Rose Marie" by C. W. Harlen
Amateur Double - "Elephant Ear" by Billie Gill

Collector Single - "Happiness" by N. J. Brubaker
Collector Double - "Stella McLain" by Gordon Fore

Commercial Single - "Asato 154" by Trail Nursery
Commercial Double - "Marte Cody" by Homestead Nursery

Miniature Single - "Paul James" by W. J. Baum
Miniature Double - "Blue Boy" by Kent Duve

Seedling Single - "Mandy B" by N. J. Brubaker
Seedling Double - "#29" (Double Red) by Trail Nursery

Old Favorite - "Mrs. James Hendry" by W. E. Whitman

Trophies went to Billie Gill's "Elephant Ear"; Gordon Fore's "Stella McLain"; Trail's "Asato #154"; Duve's "Blue Boy"; Homestead's "Marty Cody"; and the seedling of Brubaker - "Mandy B".

Mrs. Kent Duve took a trophy for the artistic arrangement she had entered.

The show was deemed a success even though it rained all afternoon and kept the crowd in the low figures.
